

MEDICAL EDUCATION IN EUROPE (1350-1750)
Draft Programme

21 OCTOBER 2025

- 8.45 Registration
9.15 Opening Address

Keynote Lecture

- 9.30 Medical Education: New Opportunities, Old Problems
 Vivian Nutton
9.50 Q&A

TEXTS

Session 1: Structuring Medical Knowledge in the Middle Ages

- 10.00 The Representation of Medical Knowledge in the Treatises of 14th-Century Physician Thomas of Wrocław (1297-1378)
 Karoline Szula
10.15 Medical Teaching in Verona: Magister Antonio Pelacani and the 'Ars Medica'
 Francesca Masiero
10.30 Cancer in Fourteenth-Century Rational Surgery: Classification, Terminology, and Medical Authority
 Claudio Zabatta
10.45 Q&A
11.00 Coffee Break

Keynote Lecture

- 11.30 Cardano's Critique of Galen's Pedagogy
 Ian Maclean
11.50 Q&A

Session 2: Humanist Traditions and Didactic Strategies

- 12.00 Teaching Materia Medica in the 16th Century. Mattioli's Rediscovered Annotations on the 1544 edition of the 'Discorsi'
 Fabrizio Bigotti
12.15 Bridging Mathematics and Life Sciences: The Transmission of Aristotle's De motu animalium in the Renaissance
 Nuno Castel-Branco
12.30 Teaching Medical Theory at the University of Pisa. The Case of Estêvão Rodrigues de Castro (1559–1637)
 David Mesquita
12.45 Q&A

MEDICAL EDUCATION IN EUROPE (1350-1750)
Draft Programme

13.00 Lunch

Session 3: Vernacular and Informal Learning

- 14.30 Ambroise Paré's "Voyages": A Text for Teaching Surgeons
Elena Berger
- 14.45 The Early Modern Vernacular Remedy Book Seyfer Yerum Moyshe: Translating Italian Medical Training into Yiddish
Daniella Zaidman-Mauer
- 15.00 The Didactics of Frederik Ruysch with His Mummies
Alessio Dore
- 15.15 The Family Magazine (1747): Women's Informal Medical Education in Domestic Lexicography
Martina Guzzetti
- 15.30 Q&A

INSTITUTIONS

Keynote Lecture

- 15.50 Academic Mobility and Medical Education in Sixteenth-Century Italy and Beyond
David Lines
- 16.10 Q&A
- 16.20 Coffee Break

Session 4: Knowledge Circulation and Communities of Learning

- 16.50 Science on the Move: Montpellier as a Place of Knowledge between the 13th and the 17th Centuries
Genevieve Dumas
- 17.05 Beguines in Flanders as Spaces of Medical Learning and Embodied Knowledge
Ann Van de Velde
- 17.20 From the Faculty Library to Physicians' "Cabinet-Libraries": Circulation and Professional Uses of Medical Books in Paris (1733–1751)
Isabelle Coquillard
- 17.35 Q&A
- 17.50 Concluding Remarks
- 18.00 End of the First Day Sessions
- 19.00 Conference Dinner

MEDICAL EDUCATION IN EUROPE (1350-1750)
Draft Programme

22 OCTOBER 2025

8.45 Opening Session

Keynote Lecture

9.00 Why Rome? Foreign Students and the Medical Faculty of the Studium Urbis: Educational Offerings, Expectations, and Reputation
Elisa Andretta

9.20 Q&A

Session 5: Sites, Curricula, and Graduates

9.30 Medical Education in Early Modern Malta: The Case of Giuseppe Demarco
Jurgen R. Gatt and Skye Vassallo

9.45 Duties and Privileges: Teaching at the Incorporation of Barbers and Surgeons of Edinburgh (1505-1726)
Cat Irving

10.00 Medicine at Minor Papal Universities: Training and Practice in the Studium of Fermo (17th and 18th century)
Fabiola Zurlini

10.15 Studying Medicine: Medical Graduates at the Lullian University of Mallorca (1694–1823)
Albert Cassanyes Roig

10.30 Q&A

10.50 Coffee Break

Keynote Lecture

11.20 A University Reformed: Medical Education and Students at the University of Copenhagen, 1570–1648
Ole Peter Grell

11.40 Q&A

PRACTICES

Session 6: Beyond Academia

11.50 Disseminating Medical Knowledge in Late 17th- and Early 18th-Century Dublin: Books, Experiments and Treatments
Elizabethanne Boran

12.05 Anatomical Training for Jesuit Artists: An Unpublished Textbook from the 1590s and its Canon of Medical Text
Elisa Spataro

MEDICAL EDUCATION IN EUROPE (1350-1750)

Draft Programme

12.20 The Origins of Balneological Concepts in the Polish-Lithuanian Lands in the 16th-17th Centuries and their Bologna-Padua context.
Slawomir Marchel

12.35 Q&A

Keynote Lecture

12.50 *The Material Renaissance of Ancient Surgery.
Thinking and Teaching with Instruments*
Silvia Maria Marchiori

13.10 Q&A

13.20 Lunch

Session 7: Experimentation and Academic Techniques

14.30 *Between Theory and Practice:
Anatomical Theatres in Universities and Hospitals*
Nicole Falconi and Marie Krüger

14.45 *Tradition, Study, and Medical Practice:
Lancisi's Pedagogical Project between Doctrine and Clinical Experience*
Daniela Marrone

15.00 *Medical Electricity Arrives in Italy:
Experimental Practices and Academic Discourse in the mid 18th Century*
Lorenzo Voltolina

15.15 Q&A

Keynote Lecture

15.30 The Training of Surgeons, Doctors, and Midwives in Germany: Lines of Development from 1500 to 1750
Sabine Schlegelmilch

15.50 Q&A

16.00 Concluding Remarks